LOCAL GOVERNMENT (IRELAND) BILL.

Clause 7, further considered.

Question, "That Clause 7 stand part of the Bill,"—put, and negatived.

Clause 8.

An Amendment made, in page 5, line 14, by inserting after the word "make" the words "such orders as appeal to them to be necessary or proper for giving full effect to this Act, including"—(Mr. Attorney-General for Ireland).

Another Amendment made, in page 5, line 23, by inserting after the word "enactment" the words "(including any local Act)"—(Mr. Attorney-General for Ireland).

Another Amendment made, in page 5, line 26, by inserting after the word "members" the word "committees"—(Mr. Attorney-General for Ireland).

Another Amendment proposed, in page 5, line 39, after the word "Act," to insert the words:—

"(c) providing that all local elections in any electoral area may be held on one day, and that nominations to different local authorities may be set forth on the same or on different ballot papers"—(Mr. MacLough).

Question, "That those words be there inserted,"—put, and negatived.

Another Amendment made, in page 5, line 31, by leaving out the word "held"—(Mr. Attorney-General for Ireland).

Another Amendment made, in page 5, line 36, by inserting after the word "Act" the words "shall have effect as if enacted in this Act, but"—(Mr. Attorney-General for Ireland).

Clause, as amended, agreed to.

Clauses 9—11, agreed to.

New Clause ("Application to Sligo borough") brought up, and read the first time as follows:—

"This Act, in its application to the council of the borough of Sligo and the election of members of that council, shall have effect with the following modifications, namely:—

The first triennial election after the passing of this Act of aldermen and councillors shall be held on the fifteenth day of January in the year nineteen hundred and twenty-three, and the existing term of office of aldermen and councillors shall be extended so as to expire on the sixteenth day of January in that year, and accordingly in sections two and five of this Act a reference to the year nineteen hundred and twenty-three shall be substituted for any reference to the year nineteen hundred and twenty"—(Mr. Attorney-General for Ireland).

Clause read a second time, and added to the Bill.

Another New Clause ("Deposits by candidates") brought up, and read the first time as follows:—

"(1) A candidate at a local election or some one on his behalf shall deposit or cause to be deposited with the returning officer during the time appointed for the election the sum of five pounds, and if he fails to do so he shall be deemed to be withdrawn within the provisions of The Ballot Act, 1872.

(2) The deposit may be made by the deposit of any legal tender or, with the consent of the returning officer, in any other manner.

(3) If after the deposit is made the candidate is withdrawn in pursuance of the provision of The Ballot Act, 1872, the deposit shall be returned to the person by whom the deposit was made, and if the candidate dies after the deposit is made or before the poll is commenced the deposit, if made by him, shall be returned to his legal personal representative, or if not made by him shall be returned to the person by whom the deposit was made.

(4) If a candidate who has made the required deposit is not elected and the number of votes polled by him does not exceed one-tenth of the number of votes polled divided by the number of members to be elected, the amount deposited shall be forfeited to His Majesty; but, in any other case, that amount shall be returned to the candidate as soon as practicable after the result of the election is declared.

(5) For the purpose of this section the number of votes polled shall be deemed to be the number of ballot papers (other than spoilt ballot papers) counted and the number of votes polled by a candidate shall be the highest number of votes counted to him at any period during the counting of the votes"
—(Sir Maurice Dockrell).

Motion made, and Question proposed, "That the Clause be read a second time."

Motion and Clause, by leave, withdrawn.

Another New Clause ("Protection of existing local officers") brought up, and read the first time as follows:—

"(1) If any officer of a local authority who holds on the passing of this Act a pensionable office is removed from his office for any cause other than misconduct or incapacity or resigns his office with the sanction of the Local Government Board, he shall, without prejudice to any other right, be entitled to receive from the local authority an allowance not exceeding two-thirds of the salary, fees, and emoluments which he was in receipt of at the time of the removal or resignation and not less than an allowance calculated according to the scale provided by The Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1892, and the rules thereunder, if at that time he has served as an officer of the local authority for not less than ten years or a gratuity according to the scale in Part I. of the Seventh Schedule to The Local Government (Ireland) Act, 1898, if he has so served for less than ten years, and the right to, and amount of, any such allowance or gratuity shall, in case of dispute, be determined by the Local Government Board.

(2) The Local Government Board shall not give their sanction to the resignation of an officer for the purposes of this section unless they are satisfied that owing to changes made without reasonable cause in the conditions of his employment after the passing of this Act his position has been materially altered to his detriment.

(3) This section shall apply to a whole-time officer of a committee of a local authority, or of a joint committee of several local authorities, in like manner as if he were an officer of the local authority or authorities holding a pensionable office, and in the case of an officer of a joint committee the amounts of the superannuation allowance or gratuity shall be payable by the local authorities in such proportions as may be agreed upon, or, in default of agreement, as may be determined by the Local Government Board.

(4) In this section 'local authority' means the council of any county, county borough, or county district, the commissioners of any town, and the guardians of any poor law union"—(Mr. Attorney-General for Ireland).

Clause read a second time, and added to the Bill.

Another New Clause ("Amalgamation of small rural districts") brought up, and read the first time, as follows:—

"Where the population of any rural district is less than five thousand the Local Government Board shall, if it is conveniently possible, amalgamate the district with an adjoining rural district in the same county, and for that purpose sub-section (5) of section sixty-eight of The Local Government (Ireland) Act, 1898, shall apply whether the Board have or have not amalgamated the unions comprised in the rural districts"—(Lieut.-Colonel Walter Guinness).

Amendment proposed, in line 1, to leave out the word "five," in order to insert the word "four"—(Lieut.-Colonel Walter Guinness),—instead thereof.—Question, "That the word 'five' stand part of the Clause,"—put, and negatived.

Notice being taken that 20 Members were not present, the Committee was adjourned till To-morrow, at 11 o'clock.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT (IRELAND) BILL.

Proposed New Clause ("Amalgamation of small rural districts"), further considered.

Amendments made, in line 1, by inserting in lieu of the word left out the word "four" —(Mr. Attorney-General for Ireland); and in line 1, after the word "thousand," by inserting the words "and its rateable value is less than twenty thousand pounds" —(Mr. Attorney-General for Ireland).

Clause, as amended, added to the Bill.

Schedule.

An Amendment made, in page 7, line 10, column 3, by leaving out from the word "two" to the word "the," in line 12 —(Mr. Attorney-General for Ireland).

Another Amendment proposed, in page 7, line 16, column 3, after the word "and," to insert the words "section three" —(Major Newman).—Question proposed "That those words be there inserted."

Amendment, by leave, withdrawn.

Amendment proposed, in page 7, line 16, column 3, after the word "and," to insert the words "sub-sections (1), (2) and (8) of section three" —(Mr. Harbison).—Question put, "That those words be there inserted."—The Committee divided:—
